Re: BOLIVIA: Grant for Early Childhood Care and Development of La Paz and El Alto Project
JSDF Grant No. TF011795

Excellency,

In response to the request for financial assistance made on behalf of the Plurinational State of Bolivia ("Recipient"), I am pleased to inform you that the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development ("World Bank"), as administrator of grant funds provided by Japan ("Donor") under the Japan Social Development Fund, proposes to extend to the Recipient a grant in an amount not to exceed two million, seven hundred eighty six thousand, three hundred and nine United States Dollars (U.S.$2,786,309) ("Grant") on the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this letter agreement ("Agreement"), which includes the attached Annex, to assist in the financing of the project described in the Annex ("Project").

This Grant is funded out of the abovementioned trust fund for which the World Bank receives periodic contributions from the Donor. In accordance with Section 3.02 of the Standard Conditions (as defined in the Annex to this Agreement), the World Bank’s payment obligations in connection with this Agreement are limited to the amount of funds made available to it by the Donor under the abovementioned trust fund, and the Recipient’s right to withdraw the Grant proceeds is subject to the availability of such funds. Accordingly, in the event that the Donor cancels or fails to pay any contributions under the trust fund to the World Bank for any reason, or that as a result of currency exchange variations the amount of funds available in the trust fund is insufficient for the purposes of the Grant, the Recipient shall bear the risk of such funding shortfall and the World Bank shall not have any liability whatsoever to the Recipient or to any third parties in respect of any expenditures or liabilities incurred by the Recipient or any third parties in connection with this Agreement which exceed the amount of funds made available to the World Bank by the Donor for the purposes of the Grant.

The Recipient represents, by confirming its agreement below, that it is authorized to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the Project in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth or referred to in this Agreement.
Please confirm the Recipient’s agreement with the foregoing by having an authorized official of the Recipient sign and date the enclosed copy of this Agreement, and returning it to the World Bank; provided, however, that the offer of this Agreement shall be deemed withdrawn if the World Bank has not received the countersigned copy of this Agreement within 90 (ninety) days after the date of signature of this Agreement by the World Bank, unless the World Bank shall have established a later date for such purpose.

This Agreement shall become effective upon receipt by the World Bank of: (i) an original countersigned copy of this Agreement; and (ii) the Subsidiary Agreements referred to in Section 2.03.B of the Annex to this Agreement; all in form and substance satisfactory to the World Bank. Upon compliance with the above mentioned conditions, the World Bank will send a notice of effectiveness to the Recipient (the “Effectiveness Date”).

Very truly yours,

INTERNATIONAL BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT

Article II
Project Execution

2.01. Project Objectives and Description. The objective of the Project is to reduce child-care constraints for unemployed, or precariously employed young mothers and promote the healthy development of their children in the Selected Districts. The Project consists of the following parts:

Pa:1. Improving the Quality of ECD Services.

(a) Provision of support to implement quality assessment tools to, inter alia: (i) evaluate the quality of the existing ECD services in the Selected Districts, (ii) define baselines and develop targets for improvement; and (iii) assess the capacities of the Selected Districts to expand coverage and increase the number of Beneficiaries and new ECD centers.

(b) Provision of support to develop quality improvement action plans in the Selected Districts action plans, through, inter alia: (i) training and workshops to all ECD Service Providers; and (ii) the design of a certification program for all ECD Service Providers.
Part II. Expanding coverage of ECD services.

Development of new facilities to provide ECD Services to Beneficiaries in the Selected Districts, according to the assessments carried out under Part I, through, inter alia: (a) the establishment of new ECD centers; and (b) the remodeling of existing communal spaces.

Part III. Institutional Strengthening, Community Empowerment and Project Management.

(a) Provision of training to beneficiary mothers, including, inter alia, sessions on productive employment skills and on sexual and reproductive health.

(b) Provision of support for, inter alia: (i) the technical and administrative management of the Project (including the fiduciary aspects); (ii) the development of a database for the monitoring and evaluation of the Project; (iii) the development and implementation of a platform to facilitate the Beneficiaries' participation in the implementation, monitoring and evaluation of the Project; (iv) the design and implementation of a workshop to disseminate information and lessons learned on the Project; and (v) the carry out of the Project audits.

2.02. Project Execution Generally. The Recipient declares its commitment to the objectives of the Project. To this end, the Recipient shall, and shall cause La Paz and El Alto to, carry out the Project in accordance with: (a) the provisions of Article II of the Standard Conditions; (b) the "Guidelines on Preventing and Combating Fraud and Corruption in Projects Financed by IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants", dated October 15, 2006 and revised in January 2011 ("Anti-Corruption Guidelines"); (c) the Operational Manual; and (d) this Article II.

2.05. Institutional and Other Arrangements.

A. Institutional Arrangements

1. The Recipient shall cause La Paz and El Alto to ensure that responsibility is assigned internally among the selected departments and units within their respective autonomous governments, as the case may be, and throughout Project implementation, for the overall implementation, coordination, monitoring and reporting of the Project activities under their jurisdiction, as described in detail in the Operational Manual.

B. Subsidiary Agreements

1. To facilitate the carrying out of La Paz and El Alto Project activities under their jurisdiction, the Recipient shall make part of the proceeds of the Financing available to:

(a) La Paz under a subsidiary agreement (the "La Paz Subsidiary Agreement") to be entered into between the Recipient and La Paz; and

(b) El Alto under a subsidiary agreement (the "El Alto Subsidiary Agreement") to be entered into between the Recipient and El Alto, (collectively, the "Subsidiary Agreements");

all under terms and conditions approved by the World Bank, which shall include, inter alia, the obligation of La Paz and El Alto to: (i) carry out the Project with due diligence and efficiency and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Anti-Corruption Guidelines and the Operational Manual; (ii) procure consultants’ services, goods and works under the Project in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.05 of this Agreement; (iii) maintain adequate records and accounts, and make available such documentation to the Recipient, and any other information that the Recipient may request to comply with its obligations under Section 2.04 of this Agreement; (iv) take all actions necessary to enable the Recipient to comply with its obligations under this Agreement.

2. The Recipient shall exercise its rights under the Subsidiary Agreements in such a manner as to protect the interests of the Recipient and the World Bank and to accomplish the purposes of the Financing. Except as the World Bank shall otherwise agree, the Recipient shall not assign, amend, abrogate, waive or fail to enforce the Subsidiary Agreements or any of their provisions.

3. In the case of a conflict between the provisions of the Subsidiary Agreements and the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

C. Operational Manual

1. Not later than 15 (fifteen) days after the Effectiveness Date, the Recipient shall adopt a manual satisfactory to the World Bank (the Operational Manual).

2. The Recipient shall cause La Paz and El Alto to carry out the Project activities under their jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of the Operational Manual which shall include, inter alia: (i) the detailed description of the activities of the Project for which La Paz and El Alto are responsible for, including their implementation, sequence, timetable and benchmark; (ii) structure of the key staff assigned to Project execution in the Selected Districts, the institutional arrangements in respect thereof and the ensuing assignment of respective responsibilities for the Project activities, including, inter alia, the financing, procurement, reporting and auditing aspects; (iii) environmental guidelines for remodeling and construction, including procedures to follow in case of unexpected findings of physical resources with possible cultural archeological, paleontological, historical, religious, aesthetic, or other cultural value; (iv) the indicators to be used for Project monitoring and evaluation; (v) the Project administrative, financial, accounting, auditing, procurement and disbursement procedures, including all pertinent standard documents and model contracts in relation thereto; (vi) the overview of planned capacity building and training activities, including workshops to be carried out by the Selected Districts under the Project; (vii) the eligibility criteria and detailed rules and procedures for the selection of Beneficiaries; (viii) the methodology for the calculation of the fee to be charged to Beneficiaries (based on the existing fee scale used in other public child care centers in La Paz and El Alto) to finance enrollment and ensure service sustainability under Part II of the Project; (x) the detailed rules and procedures for the revision of said fee from time to time, satisfactory to the Bank. Except as the World Bank shall otherwise agree, the Recipient shall not and shall cause La Paz and El Alto not to, (including not allowing any party to any contract or agreement entered into with La Paz and/or El Alto for purposes of this Project), amend, waive or fail to enforce the Operational Manual or any provision thereof. In case of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and those of the Operational Manual, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.
D. Safeguards

1. The Recipient shall cause La Paz and El Alto to: (i) implement the Project in accordance with the Environmental and Social Management Framework (ESMF); (ii) adopt the procedures detailed in said ESMF for environmental screening, evaluation, implementation and monitoring of works under Part II of the Project, including the procedures for the preparation of environmental management plans, when applicable; and (iii) implement and/or cause to be implemented, the pertinent environmental management plan, when applicable, in accordance with their terms and in a manner acceptable to the World Bank.

2. The Recipient shall ensure, and shall cause La Paz and El Alto to ensure, that: (i) any works to be carried out under the Project do not involve Resettlement; and (ii) all necessary actions have been taken in order to: (A) avoid to the extent possible any social and culturally incompatible effect of Project activities on the Indigenous Peoples; and (B) ensure that benefits derived from the Project shall be culturally appropriate for the Indigenous Peoples and are gender and intergenerationally inclusive.

E. Anti-Corruption

The Recipient shall ensure that the Project is carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Anti-Corruption Guidelines. In this regard, the Recipient shall ensure that the Subsidiary Agreements include the obligation of La Paz and El Alto respectively, to comply with the Anti-Corruption Guidelines.

2.04. Financial Management. (a) The Recipient shall ensure that a financial management system is maintained in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07 of the Standard Conditions.

(b) The Recipient shall ensure that interim unaudited financial reports for the Project are prepared and furnished to the World Bank not later than one month after the end of each calendar semester, covering the semester, in form and substance satisfactory to the World Bank.

(c) The Recipient shall have its Financial Statements for the Project audited in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.07 (b) of the Standard Conditions. Such audit of the Financial Statements shall cover the period of one fiscal year of the Recipient, or such other period to be agreed with the World Bank. The audited Financial Statements for such period shall be furnished to the World Bank not later than six months after the end of such period.

2.05. Procurement.

(a) General. All goods, works, non-consulting services and consultants’ services required for the Project and to be financed out of the proceeds of the Grant shall be procured in accordance with the requirements set forth or referred to in:

(i) Section I of the “Guidelines: Procurement of Goods, Works and Non-consulting Services under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants by World Bank Borrowers” dated January 2011 (“Procurement Guidelines”), in the case of goods, works and non-consulting services;
(ii) Sections I and IV of the "Guidelines: Selection and Employment of Consultants under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits and Grants by World Bank Borrowers" dated January 2011 ("Consultant Guidelines"), in the case of consultants' services; and

(iii) the provisions of this Section, as the same shall be elaborated in the procurement plan prepared and updated from time to time by the Recipient for the Project in accordance with paragraph 1.18 of the Procurement Guidelines and paragraph 1.25 of the Consultant Guidelines ("Procurement Plan").

(b) Definitions. The capitalized terms used in the following paragraphs of this Section to describe particular procurement methods or methods of review by the World Bank of particular contracts, refer to the corresponding method described in Sections II and III of the Procurement Guidelines, or Sections II, III, IV and V of the Consultant Guidelines, as the case may be.

(c) Particular Methods of Procurement of Goods, Works and Non-consulting Services

(i) Except as otherwise provided in sub-paragraph (ii) below, goods, works and non-consulting services shall be procured under contracts awarded on the basis of National Competitive Bidding subject to the following additional procedures:

A. A merit point system shall not be used in the pre-qualification of bidders.
B. The award of contracts for goods and Non-consultant services shall be based exclusively on price and, whenever appropriate, shall also take into account factors similar to those referred to in paragraph 2.51 of the Guidelines, provided, however, that the bid evaluation shall always be based on factors that can be quantified objectively, and the procedure for such quantification shall be disclosed in the invitation to bid.
C. All bids shall be opened at the stipulated time and place in accordance with a procedure satisfactory to the Association.
D. The single envelope procedure shall be used.
E. Whenever a discrepancy shall occur between the amounts in figures and in the words of a bid, the amounts in words shall govern.
F. No prescribed minimum number of bids shall be required to be submitted for a contract to be subsequently awarded.
G. Foreign bidders shall be allowed to participate.
H. Foreign bidders shall not be required to legalize any documentation related to their bids with Recipient's authorities as a prerequisite for bidding.
I. No margin of preference shall be granted for any particular category of bidders.
J. In the event that a bidder whose bid was evaluated as the bid with the lowest evaluated price withdraws its bid, the contract may be awarded to the second lowest responsive evaluated bid.

-8-
K. Foreign bidders shall not, as a condition for submitting bids, be required to enter into a joint venture agreement with local bidders.

L. No procurement rules or regulations of the Recipient agency or the implementing agencies including La Paz and El Alto, nor of any state-owned entity shall apply without the prior review and consent of the Association.

M. Recipient State-owned enterprises shall be allowed to participate in bids only upon their compliance with the provisions of paragraph 1.10 (b) of the Guidelines.

N. No contractor or supplier shall be denied fair and equitable treatment in any resolution of dispute with the Recipient and/or any of its executing agencies.

O. Bidding documents for NCB shall include Anticorruption Clauses that shall be substantially identical to those pertaining to the Association/Bank Standard Bidding Documents for ICB.

(ii) The following methods, other than National Competitive Bidding, may be used for procurement of goods, works and non-consulting services for those contracts specified in the Procurement Plan: (A) Shopping only for goods; (B) procurement under Framework Agreements in accordance with procedures which have been found acceptable to the World Bank; (C) Direct Contracting; (D) Force Account; and (E) Community Participation procedures which have been found acceptable to the World Bank.

(d) Particular Methods of Procurement of Consultants’ Services

(i) Except as otherwise provided in sub-paragraph (ii) below, consultants’ services shall be procured under contracts awarded on the basis of Quality- and Cost-based Selection.

(ii) The following methods may be used for the procurement of consultants’ services for those assignments which are specified in the Procurement Plan: (A) Quality-based Selection; (B) Selection under a Fixed Budget; (C) Least Cost Selection; (D) Selection based on Consultants’ Qualifications; (E) Single-source Selection of consulting firms; (F) Well-established Private Sector Procurement Methods or Commercial Practices which have been found acceptable to the World Bank; (G) Selection of consultants under Indefinite Delivery Contract or Price Agreement; (H) Selection of Individual Consultants; and (I) Single-source procedures for the Selection of Individual Consultants.

(e) Review by the World Bank of Procurement Decisions. The Procurement Plan shall set forth those contracts which shall be subject to the World Bank’s Prior Review. All other contracts shall be subject to Post Review by the World Bank.

(f) Special Provisions. In addition to, and without limitation on any other provisions set forth in this Section or the Consultant Guidelines, the following rules shall govern all procurement of consultant services referred to in this Section:
as a condition for participating in the selection process, foreign consultants shall not be required to enter into a joint venture agreement with local consultants, unless the conditions stated in paragraph 1.12 of the Consultant Guidelines are met;

as a condition for participating in the selection process, foreign consultants shall not be required to legalize their proposals or any documentation related to such proposals with Recipient authorities;

foreign consultants shall not be required to be registered in the Recipient's National Registry of Consultants (Registro Nacional de Consultoria);

consultants, either firms or individuals shall not be required to present bid and performance securities as a condition to present proposals and sign an award contract;

no contractor or supplier shall be denied fair and equitable treatment in any resolution of dispute with the Recipient;

no consultant, either firms or individuals, shall be denied a fair and equitable treatment in its resolution of dispute with the Recipient; and documents shall include anti-corruption clauses that shall be substantially identical to those pertaining in the Anti-Corruption Guidelines.
